Birmingham City Council as the local authority for Birmingham has a statutory duty to provide sufficient school places.

- The city of Birmingham has a growing population with one of the youngest populations in Europe and the number of births in the city has risen rapidly over the last few years.
- To compound this Birmingham is also experiencing high levels of in year growth in the city.
- Certain areas of the city have experienced a larger increase in the birth rate than others. As a result, demand for places has grown and unless action is taken, there will not be sufficient places for each child in the ward.
- Our projected pupil numbers showed that we needed to provide an additional 705 Reception places in the city in September 2015 and still need to provide a least further places in 2016 and 2017 in Erdington and Sutton Coldfield areas.
