*Analyst comments:

Two responses were from one person. The comments have been counted and analysed as two responses.

One other response was received by post after the pre-statutory consultation period ended. As this is pre-statutory consultation, the Birmingham City Council officers decided to include and consider these comments along with all others received. During the next stage of consultation, the statutory "representation period", comments will only be considered if they are received during and before the end of that period.
