*Analyst comments:

(a.) The website recorded 10 responses; however, one response received contained no information (completely blank) and was therefore not counted within the totals recorded above.

(b.) For the question, "are you in favour of this proposal", the website recorded 5 "yes" and 3 "no", however, from the comments of one respondent, it appears that they were expressing, "No [not in favour of the original proposal]. This response has been counted in the totals above as, "Yes [in favour of revocation of the original proposal]"; and, the total for not in favour amended accordingly.
