The Police need to enforce fines for rough sleeping and begging too. The Liasse Fiare attitude to homelessness means that the Public are being exploited and picking up the void created by Public Services. The Public need to be educated not to give cash or food to homeless and to support Charities such as St Basils, SIFA and Shelter.

We are sustaining rough sleeping as a lifestyle choice with our compassion being exploited by Homeless. This is not acceptable in a modern, progressive society.

We are far too accepting of homelessness. We need a zero tolerance response to begging and rough sleeping.

The Council need to convert their redundant office blocks into emergency housing for homeless, with wrap-around support to rehabilitate people. This would be a better use of the buildings and also save the cost of housing in Hotels and B&Bs.

The Council and Police are far too complacent and tolerant of the blight of homelessness.
